

Ennis Tennis & Badminton Club – Badminton Ireland affiliation process

Ennis Tennis & Badminton Club affiliates its badminton players to Badminton Ireland using the affiliation platform, Sport80.

A current Badminton Ireland affiliation number is required to enter all badminton competitions. Affiliation is also a requirement for insurance purposes, especially when playing away from the club.

In order to process members' affiliations, the club collates and uploads to the Sport80 platform, data from relevant members including name and address, gender, date of birth, phone, and email.

For anyone under 18, this data is also provided, and parent/guardian contact details are used.

When completing the affiliation process on your behalf, the club provides your acceptance of Badminton Ireland's Terms & Conditions and Privacy Policy.

Badminton Ireland's Terms & Conditions, Privacy Policy and Privacy Statement can all be viewed in the Club's Documents Section on our website.

In addition to providing the above details to Badminton Ireland, the club also elects for you to receive communications from Badminton Ireland. Communications include information relating to your affiliation, Badminton Ireland policies, and other relevant data.

Ennis Tennis & Badminton Club's Data Protection Statement is available in Club's Documents Section on our website.
